LIVE 3 | Big Ten Football: Iowa vs. Wisconsin

Saturday, October 31 | Kinnick Stadium, Iowa City

4 Tickets | Iowa vs. Wisconsin (Homecoming)

Pregame Tailgate Party

Tour of Iowa's Football Facility, Locker Room, Weight Room & Practice Area

$1000 Gift Card for Hotel Stay

There's no trick to this treat: Four lucky Hawkeye (or Badger) fans will spend Halloween weekend at Kinnick Stadium for Iowa's Homecoming showdown with Wisconsin, the 18th time the Hawkeyes have played on Halloween. Iowa has won four straight in the series, so the Badgers will be looking to snap the streak on their rivals' home turf, and with a 100th meeting between these two border rivals on the line, this one has extra bragging rights attached.

If the game happens to hit a lull, keep an eye on the clock. At the end of the first quarter, all 69,000-plus fans in Kinnick Stadium turn toward the University of Iowa Stead Family Children's Hospital next door and wave to the young patients watching from the 12th-floor windows, a tradition known as the Hawkeye Wave that's been called the best in college football and hits especially close to home for a foundation built around fighting cancer.

The package kicks off with a pregame tailgate party and includes a behind-the-scenes tour of Iowa's football facility, locker room, weight room, and practice area, plus a $1000 gift card that can be used for hotel stay so you don't have to rush home after the final whistle.

Thank you to Andy & Diane Hartlieb and Jon & Kaitlyn Budmayr for this exciting gameday package.

LIVE 4 | Bears vs. Jaguars — Row 1 on the 40

Sunday, December 6 | Soldier Field | 5 Tickets

Row 1, 40-Yard Line, Directly Behind the Bears Bench

Framed Bears No. 41 Practice Jersey Honoring the Anniversary of Brian Piccolo's Passing

Jeannie Morris' "Brian Piccolo, A Short Season" Book

You won't find seats closer to the action than these: Row 1 on the 40-yard line, right behind the Bears bench, close enough to hear the calls before they happen, as the Bears host the Jacksonville Jaguars at Soldier Field. Bring four friends and settle in for a front-row view of every huddle, every sideline conversation, and every celebration when Chicago finds the end zone.

This package also honors the legacy of Brian Piccolo, the Bears running back whose battle with cancer in the late 1960s became one of football's most enduring stories of courage and friendship. Included is a framed practice jersey commemorating the anniversary of his passing, along with a copy of Jeannie Morris' "Brian Piccolo, A Short Season," the book that first told his story and still resonates with anyone touched by cancer today, which makes this package feel especially fitting for a Barndance crowd.

Thank you to MAC Automation for the front row tickets and the Chicago Bears for the framed jersey and book.

These days he's still touring hard, and four lucky guests will catch him live from the third row at Concerts on the Slopes, a summer concert series set right at the base of the Sunrise trail in Park City's Canyons Village, a stage that's also hosted acts like the Grateful Dead and Lynyrd Skynyrd over the years.

Ribeye Steaks from Butcher on the Block

Robb & John Preparing the Steaks and Making All the Sides

Must Be Within McHenry County or 25 Miles of the Sheriff's Office

Date Open & Mutually Agreed Upon

Don't panic if you see squad cars pulling into your driveway this time — they're preparing dinner, not writing citations. McHenry County Sheriff Robb Tadelman and Undersheriff John Bucci are reporting for duty at your home, firing up the grill with juicy ribeye steaks from Butcher on the Block and whipping up the sides themselves, proving they're every bit as skilled with a spatula as they are with a badge.

This is the rare chance to gather the family, the neighbors, or the whole book club and say the cops cooked you dinner and meant it as a compliment. Your home just needs to fall within McHenry County or 25 miles of the Sheriff's office, and the date is entirely up to you and your schedule, handcuffs strictly optional.

Thank you to Sheriff Robb Tadelman and Undersheriff John Bucci and Butcher on the Block for this delicious and unforgettable evening.

Consistently ranked among the finest fly-fishing lodges in the country, the lodge features beautifully appointed private guest rooms with comfortable beds, private baths, and inviting gathering spaces where anglers relax and swap stories after a day on the river.

The culinary experience is every bit as memorable as the fishing. Start each morning with a hearty made-to-order breakfast served in the Cowboy Bar before heading out on the river. Enjoy fresh picnic-style lunches prepared daily and packed in coolers for your fishing adventure. Evenings feature exceptional chef-prepared Wild West-inspired gourmet dinners showcasing premium meats, fresh local ingredients, and creative regional cuisine. Blue Light B | NO ONE FIGHTS CANCER ALONE

King-Size Handmade Quilt

Some gifts are purchased. This one was created with love—one stitch at a time.

Every square in this beautiful king-size quilt was sewn by caring hands, many belonging to people whose lives have been touched by cancer. Together, they created more than a quilt—they created a symbol of hope, compassion, and the reminder that all cancers matter, and no one fights cancer alone.

This one-of-a-kind heirloom is made to be treasured for generations. Whether displayed in your home, wrapped around those you love, or proudly hanging in a cancer center where it can remind patients and families that an entire community stands with them, it carries the warmth, strength, and generosity of everyone who helped create it.

Perhaps this quilt finds its home in a place where it can comfort hundreds of people every year. Or perhaps it becomes a treasured family heirloom. Either way, its message will never change: No One Fights Cancer Alone.

Thank you to our dedicated volunteer quilters whose talent, time, and love transformed fabric into a lasting reminder that hope is stitched into every thread, and thank you to Laurie Spinnelle who is paying it forward. Laurie won this quilt as she stopped in a small town in Wisconsin to grab a snack and a gentleman asked if she would like to buy a ticket ...she did ... and she won.
